Message from the Rector

Holy Cross is Alive, Indeed!

37 The hand of the Lord came upon me, and he brought me out by the spirit of the Lord and set me down in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones. 2 He led me all around them; there were very many lying in the valley, and they were very dry. 3 He said to me, "Mortal, can these bones live?" I answered, "O Lord God, you know." 4 Then he said to me, "Prophecy to these bones, and say to them: O dry bones, hear the word of the Lord. 5 Thus says the Lord God to these bones: I will cause breath[a] to enter you, and you shall live. 6 I will lay sinews on you, and will cause flesh to come upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath [b] in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am the Lord."

The setting takes place in the 37th chapter of Ezekiel. The situation looks grim for the Israelites. They are not sure what will happen to them next. They are questioning the promises of God, and the resurrection of their nation. Will it come together? They're asking, will we live to see a better day; a better time in the life of our community.

God, in the midst of their condition, poses Israel (Ezekiel) a question. It's a question that highlights our independence, and at the same time, points to our dependency on God. It's a question that reminds us of our partnership with God. God asks, "Mortals, can these bones live?"

As we look back over our time together, I dare say that you've wondered and, I've certainly wondered (and not from lack of faith) can these bones live? We've asked, can these bones live with so many of our charter and long term members passing away? Can these bones live in the midst of debt and limited resources? Can these bones live when relationships still need to be mended? Well, we asked and over the past year we have received our answer. Yes, these Holy Cross bones can live!

The worst of our challenges have been stabilized and the best of what God has in store for us lies ahead. Although we're not out of the rain completely, we find comfort in the shelter God has provided as a result of our collective efforts. TBTG!

That was merely the first step in the process. The next step comes in the form of a directive and verb. It is just as, if not more, crucial to achieving the life that God wants to give. The Lord says, "Prophecy to these bones..."

God empowers the prophet to call into being the life necessary to make Israel live.

Our ability as people of God, to speak things into existence is not some far fetched, unrealistic, and unachievable dream, but it does call us to cast a vision and intentionally participate in what God is calling us to be. Yes, thoughts do become things, and what becomes of those "things" have yet to be revealed but I believe, will soon be. Holy Cross is, indeed, alive! Now what will we do with the life that we have been given? Remember, God ain't through with us yet!

God's Peace,

Dennis

MUSAC

MUSAC House of Caring would like to thank all members who came out and sent donations to our recent Family Christmas Gala on December 23, 2017 at the Southland Golf & Country Club.

We appreciate your support over the years and want you to know the children at the orphanage continue to do well. You will be pleased to know we are now in the process of purchasing the land to build this year, so we will no longer have to pay rent, therefore accomplishing another goal we have had since the orphanage's inception.

We look forward to your future support at upcoming events, and invite you to visit our website at:

Our Church, God's Church

The Church of God can never fail
It's built upon a Rock
And so it will always prevail
Our God will guide His flock

Believers meet in church each week
They read and sing and pray
But sometimes they lose what they seek
And then they go away

To where, the grass looks green
But God is everywhere
He will not ever go between
For everyone He cares

He is so merciful and kind
His patience never wavers
God's Holy Spirit will always find
The one who strays and saves her

Or him, it can be anyone,
They feel it's best to change
And find a church they're not alone
They feel they won't have to change

To get the blessings they are sure
The Father to all gives.
That is His promise to us and more
Just look to Him and live

After all, no one ever hated his own body but he feeds and cares for it, just as Christ does the church, for we are members of His body.

Ephesians 5: 30

Privacy Information

AARP Foundation operates the AARP Tax-Aide program under a cooperative agreement with the IRS. To help you complete your tax forms, AARP's trained and IRS-certified volunteers will see personal information that you give them about you and your finances. This information is strictly confidential. We will not share your information with anyone except as necessary to accurately file your tax returns or as otherwise required by law.

AARP Foundation Tax-Aide keeps different types of information about you, and for different periods of time, depending on the services you ask us to provide you.

If you ask us to file your return electronically, we keep your return information temporarily so that we can electronically process your return, ensure acceptance by the IRS and forward your information as required by the IRS, as well as any state taxation authority (state regulations may vary).

Your return information will generally be turned over to the IRS or otherwise disposed of by the end of April of the year in which we file for you. If you are e-filing, we retain aggregate data (such as city, state and ZIP code information, and return information collected at the site level, such as total returns by filing status or total Earned Income Tax Credit payment) for program analysis. This aggregate data do not include names, Social Security numbers or other personally identifiable information about individuals.

We also keep general, personally identifiable information (such as your name, address, birth date, identification numbers and employer address) for use with next year's filing. The personally identifiable information AARP Foundation Tax-Aide keeps for you will be kept confidential and will not be sold, given away or used for commercial purposes.

In all cases, we take reasonable measures to help ensure that only AARP Foundation Tax-Aide staff and volunteers who need access to your information for the purpose of helping with your tax preparation and filing will have such access. We maintain reasonable policies and procedures intended to protect the confidentiality of your information.

Mentorship at Holy Cross

Train Up a Child In the Way He Should Go

The mentoring committee at Holy Cross Decatur under the leadership of Evelia Hinds meets weekly to mentor community elementary students. The students are from surrounding Holy Cross Decatur community. The parents, grandparents, or guardians escort their students to meet with these mentors who are Ayoka Allen, Linette Francis, Sandra Roberts, Ira Williams, and Roland Wallace.

The mentoring program is aligned with Holy Cross' mission statement:

"We joyfully give of our time, talent and resources, committing our lives to God's service, in the community and the world, seeking and serving those in need and sharing with them the gospel of Christ."

Our mentoring program's mission is to equip at-risk kids with the social and emotional skills to succeed in school, stay in school, and thrive in life.

The Mentoring Program was designed to help our community children to become a high achiever and to excel in life. The tenets of the program are the 4Es: Empower, Expand, Engage, Enhance. We currently have 5 enrolled, eager, enthusiastic and regularly attending students, ages 7-9.

Our prayer is: "Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart ..." Proverbs 22:6

The program structure has a daily routine: welcome time, snack time, homework time, recreation time, reading time. During one Q & A session students expressed what they enjoy about the mentoring program including reading, playing games, and eating snacks.

Some benefits of our mentoring program:

- Healthier relationships and lifestyle choices
- Better attitude about school
- Higher educational aspirations
- Enhanced self-esteem and self-confidence
- Improved behavior, both at home and at school
- Stronger relationships with parents, teachers, and peers
- Improved interpersonal skills
- Decreased likelihood of initiating drug and alcohol use (MENTOR, 2009; Cavell, DuBois, Karcher, Keller, & Rhodes, 2009)

A few weeks before Christmas one of the students very casually said, "We should call this program, Holy Cross Elementary School." This sentiment suggests that we are truly serving those in need.

Blessed be God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. And blessed be God's Kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

Shades of Yale

On January 7th, Shades of Yale, an a Capella group from Yale University blessed us with their presence and songs during our worship service and a mini-concert afterperformed for the late Nelson Mandela, Supreme Court Justice Sonia Sotomayor and President Barack Obama wards. Founded in 1988, the group performs music from the African Diaspora and African-America tradition.

The talented students hail from all over the United States and connected through their love for music. Over the years, the group has toured both domestically and internationally and and First Lady Michelle Obama. The Holy Cross family and guests were honored to have this group of young people in our midst and their rendition of Boyz II Men's "One Sweet Day" lifted us in spirit.

Taste and See

We Are Commissioned and Committed to Follow Him

"Taste and see the goodness of the Lord, the goodness of the Lord." hymn #154 in the Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS) supplementary hymnal is one my favorites. Whenever it is sung, the lyrics and the accompanying music always play a significant part in setting the appropriate mood for my participation in the worship service. Psalm 34:8 also reminds me, "O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusted in him."

TASTE, a very important sense among the five God-given senses, reminds me that I am blessed with an innate gift to partake of and enjoy food. That ability is secular, or basic in its creation. If it were not available, we would probably eat a meal in a totally different way. From the sacred perspective, we are challenged to make a distinction or decision on what suits or is a comfortable fit for our spiritual palates. We are called and even compelled to enjoy the awesome greatness of what God has provided to enhance the process of our spiritual growth. I can attest that participating in the experience has been gratifying. I continue to be satisfied with my TASTE.

SEE, another God-given sense, allows me to attach meaning to my mental perception of physical and tangible evidence. However, understanding of the image is helped by the information I bring to what I see. The lack of or amount of knowledge I possess can sometimes distort the true meaning of the message. I have frequently experienced that. As I become introspective, I have the opportunity to reflect on the mental image and get a better and clearer understanding. It is usually an "epiphany." As we consider the ordinary times of our current liturgical "season" of the Epiphany, we focus on the main events of: the visit by the Magi; the baptism of Jesus; and, the wedding feast at Cana. We are now asked to taste and see as we communicate our requests to God; our use of a "blind" faith guides our petitions. Responses may have an answer of "Yes," "No," "Wait, not now," or "Are you kidding me?" (Smile) Nonetheless, we persist with a faith-filled passion.

We are commissioned and committed to follow Him. My and your mission is to: "Taste and see that God is good, (all the time) in Him we need put all our trust." Hymn 154, v. 3. May we all embrace and enjoy His continuing Grace, as we grow spiritually for 2018.

ECW Events

Greetings and happy new year to all!

The Executive Board of the Episcopal Church Women expresses grateful thanks for your ongoing support of sponsored events. To those who attended the post-Christmas luncheon on Sunday, January 7, at Marlow's Tavern, we say "thank you" for making the event a marvelous one for breaking bread in fellowship, making merriment, and also for enjoying the service of others, after a hectic holiday season.

Here are some upcoming events that have been discussed at meetings.

February 24 – Literary Parlor
March 10 – Sip and Paint

We hope you can join us and look forward to seeing you at our next meeting.

Vestry News

Hail...and Farewell

We gratefully acknowledge the contribution of the departing members Marcia Daley, Andrea Pinder-Jack, and Karen Williams.

We warmly welcome Frank Durant, Monica Foderingham, Erica Morgan and Karen Shropshire and ask you to pray with us that they will be empowered to help guide the vestry activities.

The Bishop's Visit

On January 28, Bishop Wright visited our parish and delivered a stirring sermon followed by a "Let's Talk" session and an equally stirring discussion with the vestry - helping to craft foundational strategies for serving Holy Cross.

Feed Your Soul

Hot Cross Buns

Ingredients

- 3/4 cup warm water (110 degrees F/45 degrees C)
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 1 tablespoon instant powdered milk
- 1/4 cup white sugar
- 3/8 teaspoon salt
- 1 egg
- 1 egg white
- 3 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 tablespoon active dry yeast
- 3/4 cup dried currants
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1 egg yolk
- 2 tablespoons water
- 1/2 cup confectioners' sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 2 teaspoons milk

Directions

1. Put warm water, butter, skim milk powder, 1/4 cup sugar, salt, egg, egg white, flour, and yeast in bread maker and start on dough program.
2. When 5 minutes of kneading are left, add currants and cinnamon. Leave in machine till double.
3. Punch down on floured surface, cover, and let rest 10 minutes.
4. Shape into 12 balls and place in a greased 9 x 12 inch pan. Cover and let rise in a warm place till double, about 35-40 minutes.
5. Mix egg yolk and 2 tablespoons water. Brush on balls.
6. Bake at 375 degrees F (190 degrees C) for 20 minutes. Remove from pan immediately and cool on wire rack.
7. To make crosses: mix together confectioners' sugar, vanilla, and milk. Place glaze in a piping bag or a sandwich bag with the corner snipped off; pipe a cross onto each roll.
